

HAPPIEST MINDS AND DYWIDAG TOGETHER IMPLEMENTED AN INTEGRATED, CONNECTED DIGITAL IOT PLATFORM THAT WOULD PROVIDE AI SERVICES AND TOOLS FOR MACHINE LEARNING.

Microsoft and Happiest Minds provided solutions and technical resource to supplement our local team expertise. This enabled us to quickly deliver a high quality enterprise class technical solution, built on the Azure IoT ecosystem, to the benefit of our customers.

James Stewart

Technology Director, Global R&D
DYWIDAG

The customer sought an integrated, connected digital IoT platform that would provide AI services and tools for machine learning; IoT remote data monitoring and predictive analysis; 3D digital twin concepts; insights to drive data management and optimize operations and costs; and instant visibility of sensor performance and interaction in a 3D environment to assist in long-term customer retention and experiences.

The platform created in partnership with Happiest Minds helps DYWIDAG's customers better understand their data via the analytics and insights it generates. Customers can now lay the foundation to build predictive performance, control costs, and improve device management. The platform has led to increased revenue and profitability and enhanced customer experiences. It's also boosted customers' security and extended their assets' lifespan.
